

Program Goals: Baldwin High School

Goal 1: To improve academic performance: 60% of regularly participating YES students (those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their Reading, English Language Arts, Math and Social Studies achievement. 50% of regularly attending YES students those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their science achievement.

Goal 2: To foster the socio-emotional development skills that help students become successful in school and life through participation in enrichment and career ready activities: 70% of regularly participating YES students will demonstrate an increase in behavior that promotes academic success and healthy development; 70% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their knowledge and/or skills in enrichment activities.

Goal 3: To increase family involvement: 50% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning opportunity. 75% of families of regularly participating students will be contacted by YES staff every two weeks about their students' progress and upcoming parent activities. 75% of families of regularly participating YES students will be informed about YES family opportunities.

Program Goals: Blandy Hills Elementary School

Goal 1: To improve academic performance: 60% of regularly participating YES students (those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their Reading, English Language Arts, and Math achievement. 50% of regularly attending YES students those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their science achievement. 60% of regularly attending YES students identified as needing homework help will improve their on-time completion of homework to the teacher's satisfaction.

Goal 2: To foster the socio-emotional development skills that help students become successful in school and life. 70% of regularly participating YES students will demonstrate an increase in behavior that promotes academic success and healthy development; 70% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their knowledge and/or skills in enrichment activities.

Goal 3: To increase family involvement: 50% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning opportunity. 75% of families of regularly participating students will be contacted by YES staff every two weeks about their students' progress and upcoming parent activities. 75% of families of regularly participating YES students will be informed about YES family opportunities.

Program Goals: Creekside Elementary

Goal 1: To improve academic performance and to increase student knowledge and enthusiasm for science, technology and engineering: 50% of regularly participating students (defined as those participating 30 days or more) will demonstrate an increase in math. 60% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in R/E/LA. 60% of regularly participating summer school students will demonstrate an understanding of the scientific process. 60% of regularly participating students will be able to experience science through enrichment activities.

Goal 2: To improve achievement levels in enrichment activities: 65% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their skills in enrichment activities. 65% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their behavior that promotes success & healthy development.

Goal 3: To foster family involvement: 60% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning activity. 60% of families of regularly participating students will attend meetings relative to the goals/objectives of the 21st CCLC program and to hear about activities and progress of students.

Program Goals: Eagle Ridge Elementary

Goal 1: To improve academic performance and to increase student knowledge and enthusiasm for science, technology and engineering: 50% of regularly participating students (defined as those participating 30 days or more) will demonstrate an increase in math. 60% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in R/E/LA. 60% of regularly participating summer school students will demonstrate an understanding of the scientific process. 60% of regularly participating students will be able to experience science through enrichment activities.

Goal 2: To improve achievement levels in enrichment activities: 65% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their skills in enrichment activities. 65% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their behavior that promotes success & healthy development.

Goal 3: To foster family involvement: 60% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning activity. 60% of families of regularly participating students will attend meetings relative to the goals/objectives of the 21st CCLC program and to hear about activities and progress of students.

Program Goals: Midway Elementary School

Goal 1: To improve academic performance: 60% of regularly participating YES students (those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their Reading, English Language Arts, and Math achievement. 50% of regularly attending YES students those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their science achievement. 60% of regularly attending YES students identified as needing homework help will improve their on-time completion of homework to the teacher's satisfaction.

Goal 2: To foster the socio-emotional development skills that help students become successful in school and life: 70% of regularly participating YES students will demonstrate an increase in behavior that promotes academic success and healthy development; 70% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their knowledge and/or skills in enrichment activities.

Goal 3: To increase family involvement: 50% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning opportunity. 75% of families of regularly participating students will be contacted by YES staff every two weeks about their students' progress and upcoming parent activities. 75% of families of regularly participating YES students will be informed about YES family opportunities.

Program Goals: Oak Hill Middle School

Goal 1: To improve academic performance: 60% of regularly participating YES students (those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their Reading, English Language Arts, and Math achievement. 50% of regularly attending YES students those attending 30 or more days) will demonstrate an increase in their science achievement. 60% of regularly attending YES students identified as needing homework help will improve their on-time completion of homework to the teacher's satisfaction.

Goal 2: To foster the socio-emotional development skills that help students become successful in school and life. 70% of regularly participating YES students will demonstrate an increase in behavior that promotes academic success and healthy development; 70% of regularly participating students will demonstrate an increase in their knowledge and/or skills in enrichment activities.

Goal 3: To increase family involvement: 50% of families of regularly participating students will participate in at least one parent learning opportunity. 75% of families of regularly participating students will be contacted by YES staff every two weeks about their students' progress and upcoming parent activities. 75% of families of regularly participating YES students will be informed about YES family opportunities.

.....